

Equality Duty Information & Objectives

Date of publication: September 2023

*On 5 April 2011 the Public Sector Equality Duty (The Equality Duty) came into force in England, Scotland and Wales.
This duty replaces the existing race, disability and gender equality duties.*

The 3 aims of the General Equality Duty are:

1. Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act - by removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by people due to their protected characteristics.
2. Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not - by taking steps to meet the needs of people from protected groups where these are different from the needs of other people
3. Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not - by encouraging people from protected groups to participate in public life, or in other activities where their participation is disproportionately low.

The nine protected characteristics/groups are:

- Age (as an employer – but not applicable to pupils)
- Disability
- Sex
- Gender reassignment
- Race

- Pregnancy and maternity
- Religion or belief
- Sexual orientation
- Marriage or Civil Partnership

Guiding Principles

In fulfilling our legal duties listed above, we are guided by three essential principles:

- Every pupil should have opportunities to achieve the highest possible standards and the best possible qualifications for the next stages of their life and education.
- Every pupil should be helped to develop a sense of the personal and cultural identity that is confident and open to change, and that is receptive and respectful toward other identities.
- Every pupil should develop the knowledge, understanding and skills that they need in order to participate in Britain's multi-ethnic society and in the wider context of an interdependent world.

In compiling this equality information we have:

- Identified evidence already in the school of equality within policies and practice and identified gaps.
- Examined how our school engages with protected groups, identifying where practice could be improved.
- Analysed our effectiveness in terms of equality.

School Context & Summary of Effectiveness

Preston Hedge's Primary School is based in Wootton Fields, Northampton. We currently have 420 pupils on roll.

We are an inclusive, supportive school where pupils thrive. We have a strong values-based culture which underpins everything that the school does. Behaviour & Safety was graded as outstanding at the time of the last Ofsted inspection (June 2014). The School Self Evaluation, validated by our School Improvement Partner, states that it continues as outstanding and no whole school priorities have emerged from self-evaluation.

We are founded on the philosophy of 'Fun, Creativity & Achievement' and strive to ensure that every pupil is provided with opportunities in all areas of the curriculum, with additional offerings that support our children to find and celebrate their individual talents.

An audit of the school in terms of equality of opportunity showed that we allow all children to thrive and monitoring shows that there is respectful ethos amongst all pupil groups.

We have strong recording and supporting systems in place to deal with any suspected bullying, sexual harassment, racial or other prejudice incidents and these recorded by the Senior Leadership Team, detailing any actions and following up on these through our monitoring procedures. All staff are trained on the reporting procedures in place, and any issues with specific pupils are mentioned in meetings for teaching and supporting staff. Where necessary, we report incidents to the CEO and wider Trust via the Compliance Committee.

Our SEN provision is strong and all pupils are integrated effectively, including those that are disabled. We currently have 2 children with EHCPs in the school, and we ensure that we meet their needs appropriately. We are proud of our success with statemented children and we have good systems in place for children with different needs.
